PINNING NEW STARS on Old Glory, Friday-Niter Club officers Dolores Romero, left, and Sheri Michel prepare for their big Independence Day Youth Center dance tonight. Dolores, club treasurer, and Sheri, club secretary, jumped the gun on Uncle Sam by pinning up two stars, instead of one, for Hawaii and Alaska. The Hawaiian star doesn't become part of the national banner until 1960, but the girls feel that all 50 states should share in the Fourth of July observance. The flag pictured here was donated to the center by Abe Heller, who received the banner for his World War II work with the Chicago Red Cross. (Desert Sun Photo).

Steel Wage Talks Recessed Until Monday; 'Strikes' Ended

PUC Delays Service Halt By SP Here

Chamber's Protest Draws Fast Action On Railroad's Move

Southern Pacific Railroad's plan to discontinue service at Palm Springs has been postponed by the Public Utilities Commission. Commission Secretary R. J. Pajalich informed Chamber of Commerce Manager Jimmy Cooper that the PUC has directed the SP to hold its proposal to suspend service "in abeyance."

OATH OF OFFICE for new Board of Education members Everett Ball, left, and Berton Lamb, was administered this week by Schools Supt. Dwight Twist, right. Following the installation of the new members, both of whom were elected in district-wide balloting this May, the board elected

Dr. B. H. Poliak, Palm Springs dentist and one-year board member, as its president. Lamb was elected clerk and Ball was named representative to the County Committee on School Organization. The board will meet July 9 to view the school district's record - high publication budget.

Negotiators Meet For Hour Today

Cleveland Workers Return to Jobs Early This Morning

NEW YORK (UP) — Steel wage negotiators, after meeting for an hour today, recessed until Monday morning.

After the joint session of the two four-man bargaining teams of labor and management, neither side talked to newsmen. However, David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers Union, and R. Conrad Cooper, industry chief negotiator, sent a formal statement to the pressroom.

THE STATEMENT said: "We are conscious that the extra time for bargaining resulting from the two-week extension is fast running out."

"We have been bargaining for two full months. The past week, with its problems attendant to implementing the extension, has been exceedingly wearing."

"WE BOTH BELIEVE that the parties may be better able to address themselves to our problems if we take time for rest and meditation over the Independence Day weekend. Therefore, we have recessed until Monday morning at 10 o'clock."

Meanwhile, the last of several wildcat strikes which had threatened to disrupt contract negotiations ended today.

THE WALKOUT, involving 6,000 workers at the Cleveland plant of Republic Steel, ended only a few hours before industry-wide bargaining talks resumed here.

The Cleveland workers, who defied union orders to return to work Thursday, finally bowed to a demand by United Steelworkers President David J. McDonald and began returning to their jobs at 7 a.m. today.

Equalization Bill Hearings Set

WASHINGTON (UP) — Hearings on bills providing for equalization of Agua Caliente Indian lands at Palm Springs, will resume July 8 and 9 before the House Indian Subcommittee, according to Rep. D. S. Saund (D-Calif.).

Sturm, who succeeds Dudley L. Simms of Charleston, W. Va., will be named during the final meeting of the 600,000-member organization.

Also nominated without opposition were Finis E. Davis of Louisville, Ky., for the first vice presidency, and Per Stahl of Eskilstuna, Sweden, as second vice president.

July 4 Fun Fair Activities Set

Palm Desert's third annual Fourth of July Fun Fair gets under way on the grounds of Shadow Mountain Club at 4 p.m. Saturday. Starting with a water show in the club pool at 5 p.m., the annual Independence Day fair features family fun for all desert residents, including an evening fireworks display and stage show.

BOOTHS DISPENSING everything from soda pop and hot dogs to icy chunks of fresh watermelon will open in various areas of the club grounds, along with a variety of game booths.

DANCING TO THE music of the Kenny-B Trio begins at 10 p.m. Principal feature of the evening's entertainment is the unveiling of "Mr. Fun Fair." Prizes will be awarded to the person who guesses the identity of the fair's mystery man by Master of Ceremonies Lou Kuehner.

Sanity Hearing Scheduled for Murder Suspect

Murder suspect Thomas Edward Dunn today prepared for psychiatric examination to determine whether he is sane enough to face trial for the fatal beating of 51-year-old John Anthony Carnes.

Dunn, 29-year-old Beaumont truck driver, yesterday pleaded innocent "by reason of insanity" to the June 14 murder of the Palm Springs bill collector.

THE HUSKY ex-Marine, accompanied by Public Defender Frank R. Moore, entered his plea in arraignment before Judge Eugene Theriault at Indio Superior Court.

He actually entered a double plea, that of innocent and innocent by reason of insanity. Judge Theriault said Dunn will be examined by psychiatrists from Pettit State Hospital and Riverside. They will report informally to the court on July 20.

BOTH DUNN'S INSANITY hearing and jury trial are scheduled for Aug. 17 in the Indio court. If Dunn is proved sane at the hearing, the trial, on the plea of innocent, will follow immediately.

Judge Theriault said Dunn will be examined by psychiatrists from Pettit State Hospital and Riverside. They will report informally to the court on July 20.

He admitted the beating, but Dunn said he didn't realize his blows were fatal.

Vet, Wife May Give Up Triplets

WILMINGTON, N. C. (UP) — A 35-year-old disabled veteran and his 35-year-old wife may offer their week-old girl triplets for adoption because they feel they cannot make a proper home for them on $40 a week income.

Nathan B. Miller, a farm laborer, said "I've talked it over with my wife. We want the girls to have a good life but it seems we are unable to give it to them. Of course, it would break our hearts, but we just don't see how we could manage."

THE TRIPLETS, Glenda, Linda and Branda, were born last Friday at Doshier Memorial Hospital at nearby Southport, N.C. The couple already had three children ranging in age from 13 to 17.

Miller, who earns $25 a week and receives a pension of about $15 a week, said Thursday his wife, Pinkie, "sees my point of view."

SOVIET OFFICIAL HEADS FOR STATE

WASHINGTON (UP) — Soviet First Deputy Premier Frol R. Kozlov headed for California today after dashing hopes he would help crack the Big Four deadlock over Berlin.

His two days of private talks and public oratory disclosed that Russia's position on Berlin and other critical East-West issues is tough as ever.

KOZLOV AND HIS party stop at Sacramento on the next leg of a 10-day flying swing around the nation. He is expected to continue his campaign to sell "peaceful co-existence" on Russian terms.

The 50-year-old official made it clear during his Washington visit that Russia wants the West to buy peace by knuckling under to

Break in 'World's Largest Theft' Reported Today

PITTSBURGH (UP) — Close cooperation between federal authorities in the United States and Canada has led to a break in the "world's largest theft" — a 12-million-dollar burglary of a Canadian bank.

Three men were arrested Thursday by the FBI in connection with the May 4, 1958, theft of 12 million dollars in Canadian government bonds, cash and jewelry from the Brockville Trust and Savings Co., in Brockville, Ont.

Those arrested were Samuel Mannarino, 53, New Kensington, Pa., reputed bigwig in Pittsburgh district racket; Norman Rothman, 50, Surside, Fla., former operator of a slot machine distributorship in Cuba; and William W. Rabbin, of Chicago.

"If we could find a good couple, we would consider letting them adopt the girls," he said.

SEVERAL PERSONS already have offered to take the children, Miller said.

If only one child had been born "maybe we could have managed but three seems impossible," he said. "We would hate to separate them. Some people might consider me heartless, but I am thinking only of the triplets."

Neighbors have provided clothing and other items for the new arrivals and there have been suggestions of an appeal for funds for the family.

Miller said, however, "I don't want my daughters to have to rely on charity for the rest of their lives. If I could just get me a small farm somewhere, I'm sure I could make out but I don't see much chance of that."

Soviet demands on Berlin and other issues.

HE REITERATED the Kremlin's demands that the Allies pull out of West Berlin and threatened anew a separate Russian peace treaty with Communist East Germany if the Allies refuse to come to terms.

He told a press luncheon Thursday that "force will be met with force" if the situation in Berlin erupts into hostilities.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter said Thursday night that Kozlov's trip to Washington did nothing to ease cold war tensions over Berlin.

"CERTAINLY NOTHING too profitable came out of the conversations" between Kozlov and top U. S. officials, Herter told newsmen. The visiting Russian had conferred with President Eisenhower, Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Herter, and the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, among others.

Herter said "nothing new" had developed in the talks to indicate that Russia had changed its demands "that the West get out of Berlin."

It was considered highly unlikely that Herter would meet with Kozlov again before the secretary of state leaves July 11 for the Geneva foreign ministers conference. The deadlocked conference resumes July 13 after a three-week "cooling off" recess.

Colombian Ship Explodes at Sea, Sinks; 27 Rescued

PANAMA CITY (UP) — The Colombian vessel Rio Atrato caught on fire and exploded in the Caribbean Thursday night 200 miles northeast of Cristobal. Of the 40 persons aboard, 27 were rescued by the German freighter merchant Essen, it was reported.

Sketchy reports received here today indicated that the Rio Atrato had sunk.

A U. S. Air Force C-54 from Albrook Field in the Canal Zone arrived over the scene before dawn and dropped flares and rubber rafts to help the German freighter's rescue operation.

The U. S. military transport Henry Gibbins raced to the area after first reports of the fire were received here.

PET DUCK FEARED ENTREE FOR THIEF'S JULY FOURTH FEED

CATHEDRAL CITY — It's no joke for Kathleen and Susan Patrick, of 68-363 Treasure Trail, but someone is probably going to have roast duck for Independence Day dinner.

The Patricks reported today that their pet duck — a 3½-year-old quacker named Miss Peepers — had disappeared from her pen in the Patrick's front yard.

"I don't see how anyone could eat her," the Patricks chorused. "She's a pet."

The pair offered a reward to the person who returns her to them.

THE RAIL LINE

was asked to "make no changes in the present status," Pajalich wrote Cooper.

The secretary's report was in the form of an answer to a chamber resolution protesting SP's proposal to discontinue its freight, ticket and express agency here and the stopping of trains 1, 2, 3 and 4 at the Palm Springs depot.

Pajalich said the company now has the option of filing a formal application for such authority from the commission.

"IN THAT EVENT, the case will undoubtedly be set for public hearing so that all interested parties might be given an opportunity to be heard," the PUC secretary wrote.

He said Cooper will be informed "should the Southern Pacific Company take any further action in this matter."

Calf Blamed For Collision Of Trailer-Trucks

BRAWLEY (UP) — One truck driver was killed and another driver critically injured early today in a head-on collision which might have been caused by a stray calf.

California Highway Patrolmen said one of the two trailer-trucks involved in the flaming crash had crossed the center of State Highway 115 about 10 miles north of here, directly into the path of an approaching truck.

A dead calf found at the scene from a nearby farm led patrolmen to believe that the truck crossing into the wrong lane did so to avoid hitting the calf.

Robert O. Bettis, 49, of Clifton, Tex., was killed in the crash.

Kenneth R. Wharton, 51, of South Bend, Ind., suffered a fractured pelvis and other injuries. He was taken to Brawley Pioneer Memorial Hospital in critical condition.

Board in Delay On Library Bids

Bids for a new high school library were opened here this week, but Board of Education members decided to delay awards of contracts until they have had a chance to scan future district building plans.

The board received a low bid of $129,000 from the Kretz and Wilson Construction Co. for the new building.

SCHOOLS SUPT. Dwight Twist reported that the district has $140,000 available for construction of the building. The available cash is part of a 1957 bond issue for $2,138,000.

Long Returns To Baton Rouge; Plans Campaign

NEW ORLEANS (UP) — Gov. Earl K. Long returns to the "real capitol" of Louisiana at Baton Rouge today after setting up a new temporary headquarters in a New Orleans hotel.

Doctors planned to give him further mental and physical tests during his stay here. He moved to New Orleans Thursday night from a roving capitol in a Covington, La., motel.

LONG SAID THURSDAY that he planned to return to Baton Rouge at "8:30 tomorrow (Friday) night."

Long, 63, who suffered "a slight heart failure" Wednesday night, still plans, against the advice of his doctors, to start his campaign for an unprecedented fourth term as governor Saturday.

THE GOVERNOR plans four stump speeches in his fourth of July debut for the Democratic primary election. He also plans to attend a beauty contest.

Dr. Paul Pratt, a psychiatrist who has been with Long constantly since he released himself from a mental hospital near Covington last Friday, left Long's room on the third floor at 11:30 Thursday night.

Pratt said he and other doctors will examine Long at midday today.

Frondizi Pleads With Military For Support

BUENOS AIRES (UP) — President Arturo Frondizi pleaded with Argentina's armed forces Thursday night to uphold constitutional rule and not let the nation degenerate into another dictatorship.

In a long statement, Frondizi said Argentina was in the "deepest crisis" of its history and warned solemnly against any attempt at a military coup.

The scholarly president, who has been harried by dissident groups of military officers in recent weeks, alternately appealed to their patriotism and threatened reprisals.

The government defends inexorably the constitutional order and will act against those who try to subvert it," he said.

HERE HE IS AGAIN — Mr. Fun Fair, that is, this is a view of Palm Desert's mystery man at the age of four, and if you can tell who he is from this, or other photos which have appeared here, you're in line for a whole passel of prizes at Saturday's big, annual Independence Day Fun Fair at Shadow Mountain Club.

United Press International
WASHINGTON — (UPI) — The Air Force says it's not true somebody goofed in building the new Air Academy. In fact, the generals proudly told Congress the other day, this project has been handled just like Air Force work everywhere.

That, apparently, was just what the congressmen feared.

Take, for example, the fine new hospital in the countryside of Normandy, France.

REP. MELVIN R. Laird (R-Wis.) recalled that in 1955 this 1,000-bed hospital turned up among top priority projects for the Air Force. Congress put up the necessary millions, and about a year ago the hospital was finished. They built a nurses' home, barracks, and service clubs. They brought in the latest surgical gear, X-ray machines, and other fancy equipment.

So Laird, on a tour of overseas bases a few weeks ago, dropped by to see how it worked out. He could hardly see the place for the weeds.

"DO YOU MEAN the grass needed to be cut, or the building was unoccupied?" asked Rep. Charles R. Jonas (R-N.C.).

Both, Laird replied. There was nobody there but a few fellows mowing a fire truck. The hospital had never been opened.

"I tried to get some information as to whether there were any plans to use it during this calendar year," Laird reported, "and there were no plans to use it during this calendar year and no plans to use it next year as far as anyone knew."

BRIG. GEN. JOHN K. Cullen, explaining things for the Air Force, said the trouble was, troop strength in France "has been markedly reduced" since the hospital plans were made.

Reduced by how many men? asked Laird.

He didn't know, Cullen said, but he would find out. Later, he supplied this memo:

"AT THE TIME construction contract for the hospital at Evreux, France, was awarded, the existing Air Force military strength for France . . . was 19,851. The existing Air Force military strength in France as of March, 1959, was 19,766."

Laird figured a difference of 85 persons.

But Cullen said the hospital wouldn't be wasted. The Air Force now has a "tentative" plan to open it up, maybe even this summer or fall, for use of 150 beds.

MEANTIME, WE are keeping the fire engine ready.

Rep. Harry R. Sheppard (R-Calif.) said let's talk some more about the Air Force Academy, where the work has been handled like Air Force work everywhere.

First he put in the record a report from government auditors, who claimed eventual cost of the academy, originally set at 125 million dollars, has soared to $269,813,637.

FOR THIS THERE were numerous reasons, including, besides rising prices, a golf course ($121,000); a display model, to show visitors before the buildings were built ($98,560); and aluminum shoe racks for the cadets ($9,218).

Sheppard, like Laird, has a long memory. Last year he asked about the big dining hall, with glass walls on three sides. He wondered if the sun wouldn't keep the cadets in a sweat both morning and evening and if Congress wouldn't be asked later for thousands of dollars for drapes.

AIR SECRETARY James H. Douglas, he recalled, said there'd be no problem at all. A 21-foot overhang was to be built on the roof and draperies would never be needed.

So a year has passed, and Sheppard learns that $2,500 has been spent on drapes, with another $2,000 committed. And that's to cover only one wall.

"Taking the testimony that we have had, and to which I have just referred," Sheppard said, "it makes me wonder just where we can hang our hats . . ."

Look through that report again, Congressman Sheppard. Maybe it will show they've got hat racks.

Satchmo Arrives In New York

NEW YORK — (UPI) — Louis (Satchmo) Armstrong, who hopes to play his famous trumpet "another 20 years or so," plans to celebrate his 50th birthday Thursday by attending a July 4 jazz concert at Lewisohn Stadium.

Reporting "I have never felt better," old Satchmo arrived home aboard a Pan American Boeing 707 jetliner from Rome Thursday night. He told a crowd of 100 well-wishers at Idlewild International Airport he had recovered from a pneumonia attack and added "I know they wanted to get me up there to play first horn for Gabriel but I don't think I'll be up there for a long time yet."

Fireworks Stand Blast Kills Two

KALISPELL, Mont. — (UPI) — Two children were killed Thursday in the explosion of a fireworks stand they were tending.

The victims were Dickie Street, 13, and Linda Helseth, 10. The stand was in front of a service station owned by the boy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Durocher, at Evergreen just east of Kalispell.

CV Savings, Loan Issues Report On Merger Plan

Coachella Valley Savings and Loan Association officials today said that 95 per cent of the association's stockholders have submitted their shares for a proposed merger of seven California savings and loan institutions.

W. H. Smith, CVSLA president, reported that more than 95 per cent of the association's guarantee stock has been turned into the California Bank in Los Angeles.

SMITH SAID THE stock was turned in for the purpose of completing an exchange agreement submitted by Financial Federation, Inc., a new holding company formed by managers of the seven institutions.

Included in the merger are CVSLA and six companies — in Fresno, San Gabriel, Compton, Exton, Marysville and Chico.

Combines assets of the group now exceeds $170 million, Smith said.

The CVSLA president noted that each association involved in the merger will operate as a separate unit, retaining the same officers and directors.

SMITH STATED THAT CVSLA assets had increased $4 million since Jan. 1, bringing total assets to a new high of more than $24 million.

Loans made in the same period exceeded $2,300,000. Savings increases were about the same as loans, Smith added.

Interest rates on savings have again been fixed at four per cent per annum to Jan. 1, 1960, payable on a quarterly basis, Smith reported.

Palm Desert Water Firm Asks to Extend Service

The Palm Desert Water Company today applied to the California Public Utilities Commission for authority to extend service to a 470-acre area south of its present territory in the Palm Desert area.

According to the application, signed by William H. Ahmanson, president of the company, the territory sought is undeveloped, part of which had previously been certificated by the PUC to the Silver Spur Ranch Water Company.

Ahmanson alleged that the Silver Spur Company has not fulfilled the conditions of the commission's decision requiring the construction of a storage tank of not less than 200,000-gallon capacity, construction and operation of a well and interconnection of the well and storage tank to its system in Silver Spur Ranch Unit No. 1 through a 12-inch diameter main.

Ahmanson said that his company recently had placed in operation a 400,000-gallon steel storage tank and has drilled and equipped new wells to meet the growth in the Palm Desert area it serves.

ORGAN PRODIGY John Ledwon, a former Desert Hot Springs resident, will join Vice President Richard M. Nixon in dedication ceremonies for Los Angeles' new Memorial Sports Arena on Saturday. The 17-year-old organist, now a music major at Pierce College, will deliver a 30-minute organ recital in the new auditorium. John now lives in Canoga Park but returned to Desert Hot Springs last year, for the community's "Penny Carnival."

Dear Abby...

by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: I am a widower who is marrying a widow as soon as we can agree on a date. I have enough money to live very comfortably and I know she has, too. We each have children and grandchildren by our former mates. My lawyer suggested that if I die first I will provide generously for her—but my own children will inherit my money. I am willing to sign a statement stating if she dies first she can leave everything she has to her own children. Will I insult her if I make this request?

SECOND MARRIAGE
DEAR SECOND: Your lawyer's suggestion is sensible and I advise you to follow through. If the lady objects, she is no lady.

DEAR ABBY: A couple in town invited two other couples to dinner and the theatre on a Dutch-treat basis. He is an executive with a very large and well-known business firm. The "host" and "hostess" charged all the dinners to his company (as a "business expense" I presume) and we learned later from a reliable source that they got the theatre tickets the same way. Then they collected from their "guests" in full. This trick was performed by people who want to assume leadership in our community. How do we show our disapproval and how cheap is cheap?

TAKEN
DEAR TAKEN: If you feel you have been "taken" you can show your disapproval by having nothing more to do with these people. Nobody knows how cheap cheap is, but sometimes it's pretty expensive.

DEAR ABBY: What has become

No Stone Unturned
STREETER, N.D. (UPI)—Authorities broke up a juvenile crime wave here when they nabbed six boys aged 10 to 13 who had been looting business places over a six-month period. Sheriff Pete Butzweiler told one of the boys they had hit every place in town except the Streeter bank. "We got that too," the youngster answered, producing two rolls of coins to prove it.

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

of the machine permanent wave? I have paid all sorts of high prices for permanent waves and they are no good—any of them—for fine hair. After one shampoo, the wave is gone. Could you advise me?

DISGUSTED
DEAR DISGUSTED: Occasionally an old-fashioned permanent wave machine can be seen gathering dust in the back room of a modern beauty parlor. Ask the manager if there is anyone who is old enough to remember how to operate it.

DEAR ABBY: I am eleven years old. I am a boy. Our whole class took pictures at school. Mine came out terrible. I look like there is a fly on my lip. Anyway that is not my problem as the pictures didn't cost but fifty cents. There is this silly girl who goes around telling everybody she is my girl. She is always kissing my picture. I didn't give her my picture. She traded a boy for it and gave him a dime. How can I stop this silly girl from kissing my picture?

JULIUS
DEAR JULIUS: You can't stop her from kissing on your picture

but pretend you don't notice it and she might stop. Girls can be awfully silly the first eleven years. Pretty soon it will be your turn.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "TOO GOOD MOTHER": Mothers who spoil their children rotten—pay through the nose.

BOARD REFUSES TO RESCIND THOMAS MOUNTAIN OPENING

The Board of Supervisors this week refused to rescind the action by which it recently acceded to a request by Forest Ranger John Gilman that the county open up a "closed" area of private land in the Thomas Mountain area simultaneously with the U. S. Forestry Service opening to the public July 1 of some 12,000 acres of adjacent forestry land.

A. H. Nightingale, who last week presented a petition with more than 275 signatures in opposition to opening of the closed area, appeared again with an additional petition, and again pleaded with the supervisors to rescind their action and disapprove the opening of the large forestry area.

NIGHTINGALE WAS supported by a sizeable group of opponents to the opening, but to no avail. Ranger Gilman showed a map of the area and pointed out improvements made during the last four years in preparation for the opening, including installation of 27 helicopter landing spots, and completion of through roads.

The forestry service opening of the area was supported by petitions from the Idyllwild and the Riverside chapters of Izaak Walton League, the Rubidoux Grange, and the Thomas Mountain Mutual Water Co., Inc.

DURING A SPIRITED altercation between Gilman and Dr. J. M. Kolisch, Kolisch asked Gilman, "Are you at the present time vice president of the Izaak Walton League (Idyllwild)?"

"I wasn't present at the meeting at which their decision was made," countered Gilman.

"Are you or are you not vice president?" insisted Kolisch.

"Yes, I am," admitted Gilman.

"You talk of opening the area for recreation," said Kolisch. "What are your facilities for recreation? Are there any camping areas?"

REPLIED GILMAN, "There are no facilities for camping at this time and camping is not to be allowed, but there are many types of recreation, such as hunting."

"Hasn't hunting been allowed in the Thomas Mountain area when it has been deemed to be safe?" asked Kolisch.

"It has," replied Gilman.

"Then why is it necessary to open up this large acreage, why is the forestry service so eager to open it for recreation," asked Kolisch, "when the only recreation offered is hunting and you can already open it for hunting when it is safe to do so?"

IT IS THE DIFFERENCE between a short period for hunting for one or two days as in the past, or of a full hunting season," replied Gilman. "A short hunting period results in a concentration of hunters."

Supervisor Fred McCall said he favored opening the area to recreation at this time provided the forestry service would agree to close it to deer hunting this year. "Opening the area to hunting this year could be disastrous," declared McCall. "I've been over the entire area and made quite a study of it. This is an unusually dry year and there's not anybody more dangerous in the mountains than an inexperienced hunter."

Put to a motion, McCall's proposal failed to get a second.

Big New Tax Plum For State Sweetens Move to Legalize Off-Track Betting

That there is a growing movement to legalize off-track betting, commonly referred to as bookmaking, as an additional feature of public participation in California horse racing was evidenced recently by the large number of people who appeared in favor of such a move in an official investigative hearing concerning "bookie" operations.

General contention of the proponents for off-track betting was that if it is legal and "moral" to bet on horse races when on the race track premises, it is just as "moral" and should also be legal to place bets a foot or miles away as the case might be, that the act of betting on a horse was the same regardless of where the bet was made or the race held; and that if betting is limited as to place, then there should be more legalized placement locations.

Contention of authorities that "bookies" should not be encouraged because most engaged in the business were underworld characters was answered with the assertion that if bookmaking were licensed and made an open and reputable business it would remove the now secret source of income and control by criminal elements in a manner as was accomplished by the repeal of prohibition.

Of general interest was the revelation that there are an estimated 10,000 persons in California presently engaged in and deriving their major livelihood from undercover bookmaking, the number of bettors furtively dodging the law in "playing the horses" off-track numbering several million respectable and law abiding citizens.

From a purely economic standpoint of new revenue and savings to taxpayers it was also argued that legalizing off-track betting would increase the State's income some $20,000,000 or more per year over the comparatively few millions now being collected at the race track gates.

Since everyone is a taxpayer . . . directly or indirectly . . . and since the current custom is to seek out classified items such as beer and cigarettes for special tax boosts, it must be admitted that the proponents of taxing off-track betting on horse racing have at least one argument which will have wide popular appeal.

If left up to the bookies and bettors, there is little doubt that they would prefer a lawful business and gladly pay the State its percentage of tax. And if put up to a vote of the preponderance of people who seldom if ever bet on the horses, it is more than probable that they would welcome the new tax levy and big new source of tax dollars.

It would not be surprising if that very thing happened, for in the end the government seems to garner every single cent in taxes it can find, and this one is a particularly large plum, ripening rapidly and within easy reach.

Love That Congress

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The American Congress is still the common man's best friend, better than Business, better than Labor, much better than the Welfare State.

To be a good friend, one must often be not only well-wishing but penetrative and knowledgeable as well. These adjectives are descriptive of the 86th Congress as depicted in the four major Labor bills now before the House of representatives.

THESE FOUR BILLS pretty well run the gamut of position, ranging from right to left, their authors being: Barden, a Southern Democrat; Kennedy-Ervin-McClellan, a medley of Senate Democrats; Kearns, a mid-road Republican; Roosevelt, a far-left Democrat. These lengthy, intricate bills differ in many ways, but they have one common factor. All four of them contain a Bill of Rights for the rank and file of union workers.

Let nobody think this is a small thing. The American Founders were acutely aware that Government — a monarchy, a republic and, in modern context, a Labor Union — can become the people's tyrant. Pious statements of intent and solemn oaths by Government are not enough protection. The people must be armed against any Government to prevent its abuse of power.

THE FOUNDERS equipped the Constitution with numerous safety devices to prevent each branch of Government from becoming too muscular, but did not write a Bill of Rights into the Constitution. It was the First Congress — that friend of man from the very beginning — which wrote the 10 Amendments that compose the Bill of Rights. Most of these are thou-shalt-nots which forbid the Government from becoming the bully of the people.

Hence, it is in the best American tradition, as I see it, that the 86th is trying to do for the working population what the First Congress did for the whole population. No citizen ought to find it boring to take a little time to read here what these Bills of Rights try in each case to do.

BARDEN BILL: "No Labor organization shall limit the right of its members to express and disseminate any views, arguments, or opinions . . ."

Kennedy-Ervin-McClellan bill: "Every member of any Labor organization shall have the right to meet and assemble freely . . . to express any views, arguments or opinions . . ."

Kearns bill: "Every member of a Labor organization shall have the right to speak freely . . . to criticize union officers . . . to campaign for or against any candidate . . ."

ROOSEVELT BILL: "The constitution . . . of every Labor organization . . . shall include . . . the right to express views, arguments or opinions . . ."

All these guarantees deal with fundamental rights of speech and opinion, but these four Labor bills also provide (unequally, to be sure) for many additional rights: to keep one's money and property, to sue the Union leadership, to be immune from arbitrary punishments, to have public charters, to hold open elections, to recall miscreant officers, to have access to the roster of membership and financial records, to vote before striking and to have the use of the U. S. law courts if things get tough.

SOMEBODY WILL say, and quite correctly, that the true value of these warranties of freedom lies in the teeth of each bill. But for the purpose of the point I am aiming to make, let us all applaud Congress for recognizing and asserting these fundamentals of all political freedoms.

By way of contrast, let us also note with disapproval that other American communities, which often chant the love of the working man, have been hostile, indifferent or ignorant toward his bill of rights. The Labor leaders, loving their power more than their responsibilities, have put up a major fight against the tough and toothy McClellan bill of rights in the Senate.

AMERICAN BUSINESS, I am sorry to say, has showed itself much more willing to tolerate Dave Beck (a convicted crook) than Walter Reuther (an honest but allegedly power-happy challenger). The Welfare State, as represented in the Labor and Health-Education-Welfare Departments, has too often decided to "go along" with the powerful Organization Men and let the working people keep their place in the presence of their masters.

But Congress is struggling to defy the powers of Labor, Business, Bureaucracy and to give the common man the cudgels to protect himself. Atta, boy, Congress!—Holmes Alexander.

THE START INTO "true" astrology comes when Brown's Dashed flies to India to set up "international offices" for his fortune-telling Temple. Brown has apparently researched his subject well for there are portions of the work that deal with the historical significance and import of this ancient means of divination.

It could have been a tremendously important book — even as a fiction effort. Instead, it turns out to be a rather presumptuous substitute for "True Confessions" or "Modern Romance." (The housewives — and even some husbands — ought to find great escape in this. It was even worth some laughs for your reviewer.)

Dashed makes a multi-million dollar corporation, inroads on "true" astrology and no less than a dozen women and girls before the 533-page "Lusts" ends.

Lay off the juice

Final warning before taking off on that Fourth of July holiday jaunt.

The California Highway Patrol is getting tough. There isn't going to be a second time.

ROBERT MCCARTHY, director of the Motor Vehicle Department, didn't beat around the bush this week in his warning to holiday drivers.

Everyone, between now and July 6, who is arrested for drunk driving and convicted thereof, is going to lose his, or her, driver's license for at least six months.

IT'S TIME TO QUIT mouthing safety slogans, he said.

It's time for action and drastic action, at that.

No matter if a driver's previous record has been lily-white, he's in for it if arrested for driving while under the influence.

For the holiday period, the first offender is going to be rated just as nefarious as the habitual lush.

IN THE DRIVE to cut down accidents, there isn't going to be a second chance.

The odds are all on the side of the CHP in deciding who's drunk and who isn't.

The driver who depends on clothes won't be half safe.

MET AN OLD FRIEND, whom I hadn't seen since last Summer, yesterday.

Was sitting on a bench at the first landing on the stairs leading down to the beach. I always sit here because it isn't so far to climb back when I get through looking and anyway, they all have to pass that landing, going up or down.

THE OLD CODGER wheezed down the ten steps, tapping his cane.

"By Gum, never thought I'd be here again," he said. "Been sick?" I asked.

"Tarnation, No! But this is the first day I've been out since the Jovay picnic at Bixby Park last February.

"Owa fault, Martha, that's my lawful wedded wife, warned me but I wouldn't hear."

"MET A COUPLE of young springs, about 70 or so, at the Clark County, that's where I hail from, booth. Known 'em for 50 years.

"They was bragging how farming kept them limber and full of vinegar and such.

"Scorned me, said living here in Southern California took the zip out of me.

"FIGURED I'D show 'em. The band was playing some lively music and I got up to do a buck and wing.

"Well, you know, it had rained the night before and the grass was wet. They almost postponed the picnic. Wish they had of.

"Sure nice to be out again, though. Gonna be 82 next month. Gonna give in and get myself some specs."

He paused as two dripping young things came up from the beach.

"Yup, need glasses. Miss Universe parade this month."

STAN DELAPLANE'S

Postcard

"We would like to have you make a humorous speech of 15 minutes duration . . ."

That is a letter I got in the mail this morning. This is a serious morning. Not a humorous morning. The heater has blown again — the hot water heater. The one that blows water all over the floor.

THE HEATER MAN looks serious when he mentions the price of replacement. If anybody should laugh at this point, I would belt him across the room.

I do not make humorous speeches. The idea of standing on two feet and being funny seems tragic to me. In fact I do not know what humor is. I read a lot of books about it. But cannot lay hands on it.

IF YOU ARE in New York sometime, you should eat at the Palm Grill on Second avenue. It is a hangout of humorists. Cartoon humorists like Rube Goldberg and Jimmy Hatlo and Bob Dunn.

The walls are covered with humorous cartoons they have drawn.

Mr. Bob Dunn is a paid humorist. But what strikes him as the funniest thing is an unpaid dialogue he puts on year after year with the man who sells meat to the Palm Grill.

WHEN MR. DUNN spots this friend across the restaurant, he calls out:

"Parn me sir."

The meat man goes right on eating. Mr. Dunn then hollers again: "Parn me, sir."

When he has the attention of all the other diners, the meat man looks up.

"Are you addressing me?"

"YES, SIR," SAYS Bob.

"Parn me, sir, but you look like an intelligent type and maybe you could help me recall something: What are those things that run in the desert? On treads. And soldiers get in them and fight?"

The meat man thinks this over. Then he says: "Tanks."

"You're welcome," said Mr. Dunn. And they both go back to eating.

This byplay has been going on for years. It keeps them both in stitches.

ONCE MR. DUNN was driving in New York on Sunday with his wife. He spotted the meat man's truck in front of him. At the next red light, he pulled alongside.

"Parn me, sir," he said. "Can you tell me the name of those things that run in the desert? And the soldiers get in them and fight?"

"Tanks," said the meat man. "You're welcome," said Mr. Dunn and drove on.

"What was that about?" said Mrs. Dunn.

"WELL, YOU KNOW," said Bob vaguely. "Those truck guys know all about machinery and I thought he might know."

"But," said Mrs. Dunn, "you said 'you're welcome'."

"I was being polite," said Bob. "You want to tell him go chase yourself?"

Mrs. Dunn thought about this for a minute. "Now wait a minute," she said. "He said, 'Tanks'."

"That's what I asked him. 'I had her going crazy,' said Bob. He considers this the absolute tops in this continuing series of personal humor.

MARK TWAIN gave some rules for humorous speeches. He was an expert. He felt that repetition was the key.

He would take an old, tired joke that everybody had heard a thousand times. He would tell this joke. When the audience sat cold, he would fumble and go on. By and by, he would try the joke again. Still cold.

About the third time, he told it, the audience knew they were being ribbed. They would fall out in the aisles with laughter.

I READ HIS account of this later. It made me cold all over — just imagining how much personal strain there would be in such a technique. I could not do it. But Mark Twain was made of iron.

I would be glad to speak (humorously) for 15 minutes duration. I wish I could speak for five minutes duration humorously. But I find I am in enough hot water around here as it is. Tanks anyway.

GRIN AND BEAR IT

By LICHTY

"You'll get along fine with my dad, Otis! . . . Just don't mention inflation, politics, traffic, crab grass, teen-agers, Russia, summer television, unions, hot rods or taxes! . . ."

EARL WILSON:

Veep Nixon Gets Into the Act

NEW YORK — Comedians beware! Vice President Nixon just visited a Greenwich Village night club — where he got up and told a joke.

The Veep, Mrs. Nixon, Sen. and Mrs. Javits, Sen. Keating and five or six Secret Service men popped in at the Bon Soir — where Comedian Milt Kamen got mildly panicky because he does a Nixon gag.

"Say, you look like-nah, it couldn't be," hesitated Kamen . . . but Jack Rollins, his manager, standing in the rear and fearing an embarrassing joke, shouted, "Yes it is, Milt!"

"Well, I'll take out this joke and insert that one and change this one," gulped Kamen.

It was after Kamen mentioned he was from Brooklyn that Nixon mounted the stage and got into the act literally. It reminded him, he said, of a little Brooklyn girl who'd asked for his autograph one night as he headed for the show, "Two for the Seesaw." As he related it, the little girl said: "You'll like it—it's doity."

The crowd — which included Producer Hal Prince, Harold Lloyd and Harold Lloyd Jr. with Bill Bendix daughter — applauded. Kamen said:

"See here, we don't allow jokes like that here—they get too many laughs."

The Nixon party went to the Bon Soir because Mrs. Javits is a fan of singer Felicia Sanders, also on the bill. Earlier that night the two-Cadillac party went to see "Gypsy" after which the Veep went backstage to congratulate Ethel Merman. He also met her daughter and father in her dressing room. "You're amazing, you're amazing! How do you do it?" the Veep exclaimed to Ethel. He naturally had a good seat at "Gypsy" — third row center, on the aisle.

Met Ingeborg Johansson and his gal at the Copa and said to him, "What's that you're drinking — aquavit?" A friend in the party said, "No — soda pop!"

Two weeks ago a guy told us that Johansson could knock out Patterson in the very early rounds — maybe in the first. We printed it. Because the fellow — the Marquis Guy de la Passardiere, husband of Lilo of "Can-Can" fame — had seen Ingo fight in London, had watched his right hand.

So when Lilo opened La Concha Hotel at Atlantic City we were there, to say thanks. Joey Adams and Al Kelly were there, too, and likewise Bess Myerson, the former Miss America. Bess and I rode in by helicopter from the airport to the hotel roof. Happy to say Bess was frightened and squeezed our hand all the way. The pilot, who'd been telling her not to worry about a thing, said to her as we came to a halt, "This was my first time to land on a rooftop."

Bess had foreseen terrible headlines: "Earl and Girl," "Bess In Mess," things like that. She explained: "It's because I fear height—I get dizzy on high heels."

EARL'S PEARLS: You spend the first half of your life with your mother asking where you're going, and the second half with your wife asking where you've been.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: The only thing kids can wear out faster than shoes is parents. TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Taifu Tuttle figures her boy friend's getting serious. The other night he asked her how much she earned a week.

Comic Alan King returned from a resort hotel; says it's so swanky they've even air-conditioned the steam room. That's earl, brother.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Record Company Reactivated

HOLLYWOOD — Anthony Franciosa sent the script based on D. H. Lawrence's classic "Sons and Lovers" back to 20th-Fox and agreed to play the part, on one condition: that they change the Lawrence story and let him live at the end of the picture.

Warner Bros. signed 18-year-old Seaman First Class John Paul Jones off the U. S. Navy carrier Bonhomme Richard to help plug "John Paul Jones."

Horace Heidt is reactivating his old record company, Magnolia Records. No new singers have been signed as yet but that's the record company that activated the career of Dick Contino.

MARY PICKFORD and Buddy Rogers laid off the entire staff of their palatial Pickfair—except for a guard, gardener and butler — for the first time in years, before taking off in separate directions, she to summer in Spain, he to summer in the straw-hat theatres in a new comedy, co-starred with Gloria Swanson.

Deborah Kerr and writer Peter Viertel have been throwing smoke — screens around their plans to wed after both are divorced from their respective mates — but the domestic scene is being set, you bet! They had Hjordis and David Niven over for dinner the other night.

FIDEL CASTRO gave his okay for Sir Carol Reed to shoot "Our Man in Havana" in Cuba on condition that he be allowed to "oversee" the script, in order that Havana won't be shown in an unfavorable light in the Sir Alec Guinness — Burl Ives starrer. Castro said his "femur fuehrer," Clara Martinez, would go easy on the script but by the time she got through blue-penciling it there were 39 changes!

Guinness, incidentally, is very unhappy with "The Scapegoat," the picture he and Bette Davis recently made for Metro. That's why it hasn't been released yet. He told the studio to release it "only when the long, slow parts have been cut out and the good things left in."

COLE PORTER HAS penned three new songs for Shirley MacLaine and Frank Sinatra to sing in the celluloid "Can-Can." The tremendous two will also dance three numbers under the direction of choreographer Hermes Pan.

The husband-and-wife producing team of Andy and Virginia Stone are living The Lush Life in the Ile de France's luxurious Versailles Suite in Japan — before sinking the ship for the furious finale of "The Last Voyage."

Producer Joe Pasternak told a wardrobe man at Metro, "I'd like you to make me up some suits so that I'll look like Cary Grant." Wardrobe wag: "So go lose 20 pounds!"

CHANNEL CHATTER — Meredith ("Music Man") Willson's next stage musical will be "The Unsinkable Mrs. Brown." He travelled to Sacramento, California, to see Lloyd Bridges doing a summerstock version of "Guys and Dolls." He's thinking of Lloyd for the lead in the tune show — and who better than the unsinkable skin-diver of TV's Sea Hunt show for "The Unsinkable?"

Judy Garland is getting one offer after another from all the networks to do specs this coming fall and winter. But none of them, claims Judy, has come up with an "original idea." They all want her to do the same show she's been doing at New York's Metropolitan Opera, Chicago's Civic Opera and other spots. "I don't want to reprise my stage show," says Judy. "A spec needs a gimmick of some kind — I just can't stand there and sing!" Aside to Judy: You can as far as I'm concerned!

PAT BOONE A-TALKIN': "I'm afraid we're going to have a little trouble shooting 'Journey to the Center of the Earth.' We're having trouble finding a title song — what rhymes with earth besides birth, berth, firch, dearth, hearth, girth, mirth, worth and UNEARTH!"

Can you imagine a more fantastic double-bill on television than "My Fair Lady" and "G.I.?" General Motors can't get the actual shows but the company is putting up a $350,000 bankroll to beam the best songs from Broadway's biggest musical and Hollywood's most successful tuneup on a spec over NBC-TV Nov. 13.

GUSTAVO ROJO married Erika Remberg on a Tuesday. The following morning, at 5 a. m., the actor had to report to Revue Productions for a Wagon Train segment. Happy honeymoon, you two!

This looks like The Big Bonanza Year for Hollywood's top talent. One of the Madison Avenue agency boys visiting here from New York in an attempt to line up such long-time TV holdouts as Clark Gable and Cary Grant for some big fall specs tells me: "I have a blank check for these boys and some of the others who have shunned TV so far — they can write their own tickets."

SELF-STYLED neurotic Oscar Levant, off his local show for the last few weeks "because I feel so well and I'm gonna stay off until I'm nervous enough to go back on," has had the satisfaction of seeing how popular he is. The station itself admits it's had "over 1,600 phone calls" from viewers demanding that he GET SICK and come back on the beam again!

Bob Horton overheard his TV producer's secretary ask an assistant: "Will somebody PLEASE tell me what my photo is doing in the boss's follow-up file?"

NEW BOOK

Astrology Capsuled in 'Don Dashell'

The Lusts of Don Dashell, by Edward Fisher Brown. Pageant Press, New York. $4.95.

Astrology — like religion — is one of the most abused, most maligned, most misunderstood of all the philosophical sciences.

In "The Lusts of Don Dashell," Edward Fisher Brown points up this facet of astrology although it seems at times that he is more interested in setting up lurid love scenes for his main character than he is in detailing the case against the shamsters.

BROWN, IT MIGHT be noted now, maintains on the book's flyleaf that he "points no finger and poses no moral." This admission is unfortunate since more than a little fingerpointing, more than a little moralizing, would seem to be in order for the business of astrology that America's "seekers" have rushed into — pell-mell.

Astrology provides a great deal of enjoyment for normal, well-adjusted people and appears to have a solid basis in historical fact as a means of determining when timing will best suit certain endeavors. The book doesn't deal with this either.

Instead, Brown sets up a series of sexual interludes that are joined by short sequences of conversation.

Dashell makes a multi-million dollar corporation, inroads on "true" astrology and no less than a dozen women and girls before the 533-page "Lusts" ends.

U.S. Women Have Best Legs, Feet, Neglect Shoes

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK — (UP) — American women own the world's best-looking legs and feet, but take the world's worst care of their shoes, says one globe-trotting observer.

Virginia Williams, fashion director for Mademoiselle Shoes, reached this down-at-the-heels conclusion from nine weeks and 36,000 miles of travel around the world, casing fashions in the interest of style influences.

"There's no doubt about it," she said in an interview, "women in this country have the shapeliest legs, the slimmest feet."

"But people in other countries take better care of their shoes. It's an automatic thing... maybe they're just thrifter. In Saigon, every sandal is polished. In India, the shoes all look clean, and that takes some doing with all the dust."

The fashion expert, a native of Chicago, former newspaper woman and magazine editor, zig-zagged from New York westward to the Orient and back home by way of India, the Middle East and Europe.

She returned not even footsore. "I took about 18 pairs of shoes," she said, "from sandals to sturdy medium heels for uneven pavements to spikes for dresses. Every woman, for her own foot health, should change shoes at least twice a day."

Miss Williams wouldn't stick her neck out to the extent of naming the nation where the women own the ugliest feet and legs—"I should put my foot in my mouth?" she laughed.

Pretty feet also are the property of Siamese and Indian women, who wear sandals most of their lives.

"Sensible," heavy shoes dominate the street scene in the northern countries of Europe "for climatic reasons—warmth and protection against dampness."

No one country sets the shoe fashions—"there is more trading around of styles." The one exception—those pointed toes which she said the Italians originated after the war and now "are universal."

Other than in the United States, the highest heels are worn in Athens, Rome and Paris, she said.

Cure the Curdles In Mayonnaise

If mayonnaise curdles while you're making it, you've added oil too quickly. But don't throw the batch away.

Start again from scratch in a clean bowl, using the same amount of ingredients as in the first batch. Add oil as slowly as possible, pouring in a thread-like stream if you use an electric beater. As soon as the mixture emulsifies, add the curdled mayonnaise as slowly as possible.

Then as the mixture thickens, add the remainder of this fresh oil a bit more rapidly, plus any that was left over from the first batch. Follow the same process if you use an electric blender, beginning according to appliance instructions by adding 1/4 of the oil all at once with the starter ingredients.

Beta Sigma Phi's Tau Sigma Chapter Enjoys Luau Poolside at Altland Home

The luau held poolside at the Palm Desert home of the Gordon Alllands Tuesday evening for members of Tau Sigma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi and their husbands was a delightful affair.

Everyone wore colorful Hawaiian costumes and the hostess had made leis for each guest.

The roof of the cabana area was rimmed with palm fronds and a clever lighting system lit up the pool area. The buffet table set up in the lanai was entered with a large cut glass punch bowl filled with Tahitian punch on top of which floated orange slices and a pink lighed candle in the shape of a lily surrounded by platters of chicken Hawaiian, shrimp and several other delectable Polynesian dishes. Guests served themselves and ate poolside while music from the hi fi played Hawaiian music.

Following dinner entertainment was provided by a few of the members, with Pat Wahlberg acting as emcee. Charlene Lotz gave an expert interpretation of the hula and one other Polynesian number. Alice Altland had prepared a skit on "This is Your Life." She had found out before hand of little incidents that had happened to a few of the guests and surprised them with humorous gifts pertaining to the occasion.

Swimming and bingo followed the entertainment, with gifts going to the winners.

Among the guests were Messrs. and Mmes. Frank Hicks, Ted Lotz, J. R. Wahlberg, Arthur Cray, Milton Jones, Fred Weigel and Tom Bradley.

Two Motor To Boise, Idaho

Pat Pearl and her mother, Mrs. Lee Satterfield of North Palm Springs, left Wednesday to motor to Boise, Idaho, where they will join Mr. Satterfield, who left earlier, for a month's stay at the home of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Satterfield.

Typical?

Next time your husband teases you about carrying an over-stuffed pocketbook, tell him this:

A shopkeeper reported that a customer toted more than 200 items in her purse, which measured 17 inches high, 15 inches wide, and seven inches deep. Included were a screwdriver, three perfume bottles (one without a cap), a passport cover holding photos, part of an old watch band, a penknife, and a broken ballpoint pen.

Ultra-cautious Walt Alston simply refuses to talk about a possible pennant but a lot of his Los Angeles Dodgers are starting to think along those lines all because of Irish Danny McDevitt.

Indio Golf Ace Tied in PGA Test

The second round of the annual Women's Professional Golf Association gets under way today with Beverly Hanson, Indio, Calif., and Joyce Ziske, Milwaukee, Wis., tied for the lead with one under par 73s.

Miss Hanson, the leading money winner last year and the first WPGA champion in 1955, put her long ball to work Thursday on the 6,700-yard French Lick-Sheraton Country Club course.

She hit 12 greens and one-putted six for a 35-38-73 score.

ELROY FACE

Face Compiles Huge Margin in NL 'Player' Vote

CINCINNATI (UPI)—Elroy Face, Pittsburgh's unbeaten bullpen ace, compiled the biggest margin in the history of the award in being named the National League's Player-of-the-Month for June.

The five-foot-eight, 155-pound, owner of a spotless 12-0 record, received 30 of a possible 40 votes from the committee of baseball writers and broadcasters participating in the balloting.

Face made 14 relief appearances during June, winning five games while striking out 18 batters in 23 2/3 innings and walking only three. His earned run average was 0.37 during June.

The highest vote total for any player prior to the balloting for June was 19 since the award was inaugurated in May of 1958. Three players gained that total last season — Joey Jay of the Braves in July, Lew Burdette of the Braves in August and Willie Mays of the Giants in September.

Hebert Brothers Lead Buick Open On First Round

GRAND BLANC, Mich. — (UPI)—Lionel and Jay Hebert carried a share of the lead into today's second round of the $52,000 Buick Open, the first time they've ever been co-leaders in a major golf event.

The Louisiana brothers and little-known Monte Bradley of Hillsboro, Tex., clipped four strokes off par at the 7,280-yard Warwick Hills Golf and Country Club Thursday to grab the first round lead with 68's.

They were two strokes ahead of a threesome which included Bob Goalby, Crystal River, Fla.; Mike Souchak, Grossinger, N.Y.; Ted Kroll, Sarasota, Fla.; Henry Ransom, St. Andrews, Ill.; and Tom Nieporte, Bronxville, N.Y.

Colts to Protest Loss to Wildcats

The Village entry in the Coachella Valley Recreation District's Colt League has filed notice of protest in its 4-1 defeat at the hands of the Oasis Wildcats last night in Indio.

Manager Ray Lockwood said that he had protested "coaching by one of the opposing pitcher by one of the umpires." The protest will be heard by the CVRD commissioners.

Neil Walter, Oasis pitcher who allegedly received the umpire's instructions, wound up with 12 strikeouts in last night's game. Line scores and batteries:

Elks-Boys' Club	100	000	0-1	3 1
Oasis Wildcats	129	000	1-4	4 0

INGEMAR PUZZLED BY 'UNDERDOG' ODDS FOR REMATCH

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. — (UPI) — Heavyweight king Ingemar Johansson, puzzled over American bookmakers, leaves his Florida vacation hideaway today, taking with him a new business manager and a desire to meet former champion Rocky Marciano in an exhibition match.

The handsome Swedish titleholder is slated to fly to New York from Miami at 2 p.m. e.d.t. Since Monday, he has been at nearby Hillsboro Beach, guest of Swedish-born industrialist Gustav Von Reis.

Johansson said at a news conference here Thursday that he "can't understand" early odds making him a 5-7 underdog in his rematch with Floyd Patterson.

Controversial Peruvian Nets Easy Wimbledon Win

WIMBLEDON, England — (UPI) — Alex Olmedo of Peru and Los Angeles, a center of tennis controversy on three continents, today became the first South American to win a Wimbledon title when he whipped Australia's Rod Laver in the men's singles final 6-4, 6-3, 6-4.

Olmedo, seeded first and the odds-on 1 to 8 favorite, won the most coveted crown in tennis before a standing-room center court crowd of more than 15,000.

PRINCESS MARGARET, who planned to leave the All-England Club by helicopter to avoid the heavy traffic, and the Duchess of Kent were among those who watched the bronzed descendant of the Inca Indians make Wimbledon history.

Many tennis observers in the United States and Australia criticized the United States Lawn Tennis Association for naming Olmedo to its 1958 Davis Cup team. He came here as an official USLTA representative but British sports writers call him "Peru's gift to American tennis."

THE UNITED STATES had at least one participant in every event today including Darlene

Hard of Montebello, Calif., who is trying to score a "triple"—victory in the women's singles, women's doubles and mixed doubles. Miss Hard smashed her way into the singles finals Thursday with a 6-4, 6-4 victory over Sandra Reynolds of South Africa.

Miss Hard, a one-time waitress who has been knocking at the door of tennis greatness for several years, teams with Jeanne Arth of St. Paul, Minn., against Miss Reynolds and Renee Schuurman in women's doubles and with Laver against Billy Knight of Great Britain and Yola Ramirez of Mexico in mixed doubles.

Look at the other side of the picture: fog, rain, smog, snow and floods together with inclement weather is theirs for the other nine months while we are enjoying perfect weather and clear skies.

HOWEVER, WE HAVE to admit care of our gardens is more time and water consuming than theirs. Where outsiders hold garden plant care and irrigation on anything from four days to a month routine according to the plants, we have to consider about four times as much water and time use to keep our gardens in good condition.

We also have to admit that many newcomers to our desert have — wisely probably — nothing but cacti in their gardens and lawns and have only a modicum of water to think about.

MR. AMATEUR Gardener could slightly lessen his water bill by putting an inch and a half to two inches of peat moss — heavily wetted before using — in the basin or plant. This process would lessen evaporation and hence save time and money.

Unless sufficiently shaded many flowering plants such as roses and hibiscus are now wilting and producing only poor flowers. Until the middle of September they might run that way, depending on the thermometer, after that we prune away the ragged parts of the rose trees and they begin to really produce. Hibiscus can stand pruning any time between now and September.

WITH OLD SOL at its highest orbit and giving the north face of local homes three hours of morning sun geraniums and the like look sort of ragged at this time and produce only an occasional flower. It almost makes people wish they had planted Natal Plum.

Unless already in adequate shade those young settings of Poinsettias call for shade from the sun's rays while they work to produce a root system of their own and show some green leaves. With heavy burlap screening they should accomplish all this and more by mid-September. Keep the soil damp but not soggy and — when there is a good showing of leaves — feed them iron sulphate.

The sulphate should not contact the cuttings so make a one inch circular trench about three inches from each stalk, sprinkle iron sulphate in the trench then cover with soil before watering.

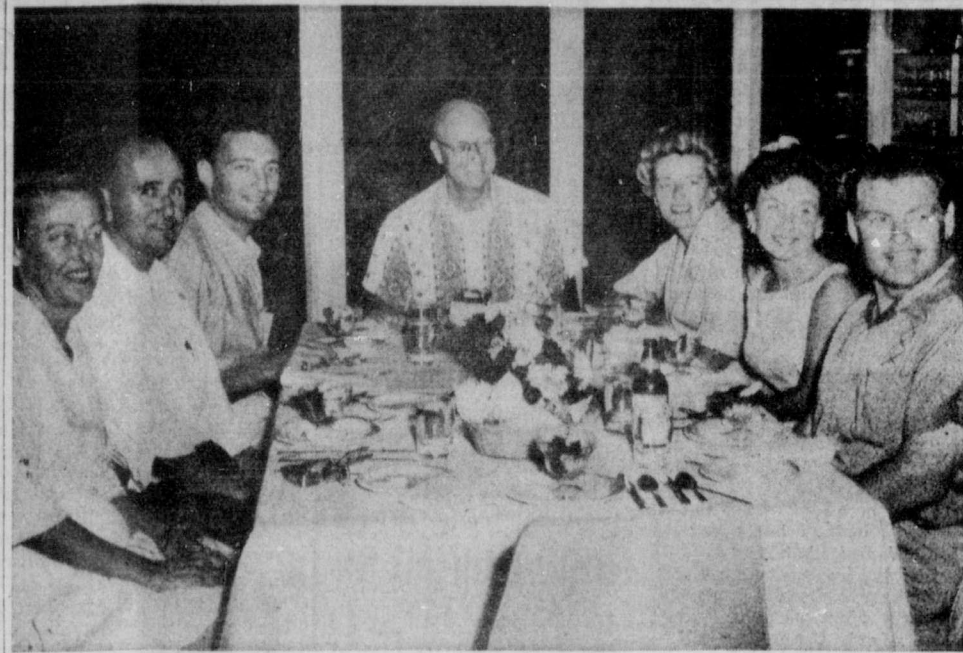

IF THE LEAVES of your citrus trees start curling upward put a spade in the soil and you will probably discover that the soil is dry to a depth of about a foot. Govern the irrigation by the thermometer: 115 to 120 degrees calls for twice a week, 110 to 115 three times in two weeks, 100 to 110 once a week and lower accordingly. When the hot weather is behind us bear in mind that a citrus tree can be killed by over irrigation. Two inches of peat moss in such basin will slow up evaporation.

If you have Iris bulbs in the ground from this year's growth dig them up. The woody roots are probably infected by now so throw them out. When replanting use only rhizomes that are young, large, and healthy. It would be wise to work some bone meal into the vacated trench. Plant the new rhizomes about a foot apart leaving one five-inch fan on each. We have found that waiting until October for replanting might mean you would have no blooms next year so plant them between now and mid-August.—T.G.M.

Two of State's Federal Savings Firms Merge

California Federal Savings and Standard Federal Savings, two of California's largest and oldest savings associations, yesterday combined their operations under the name of California Federal Savings Association, with resources totalling $503,940,537 on June 30, making it the nation's largest federal savings association. It was jointly announced by George M. Eason, chairman of the board, and J. Howard Edgerton, president and chief executive officer of the new firm.

Concurrently, it was announced that the dividends of the two merging firms for the quarter ending June 30 totalled $3,751,637. This payment, figured at the current rate of 4 per cent per year, was paid or credited on all savings accounts of the two firms.

ot of the party's plane; Bud Garfield, managing director of Rancho Mirage Properties and host for the Whispering Waters dinner; Congressman and Mrs. Roosevelt; Mrs. Woody Duke and Woody Duke, president of the Cloverleaf Aviation Co., of Santa Monica, and owner of the craft that brought the Roosevelts to Rancho Mirage.

WINNING SALES SLIP is clutched by Mrs. Stuart Allen as she picks up her electric barbecue at Mayfair Market in Cameron Center. Mrs. Allen, who lives at 155 Ocotillo Avenue, said she hadn't won anything in any contest until she won a coupon book when Mayfair opened in December. "Now I've won this barbecue," she sighed. Looking on at right is Mayfair cashier Becky Brown. (Sun Photo).

Business Pick-Up Reflected By BofA Record Loan Mark

California's — and the nation's — rapid pick-up in business activity is indicated by a new high in total loans of $6,037,183,369, reported by Bank of America in its June 30, 1959, statement of condition.

The record loan figure is $624,203,712 more than on June 30, 1958. "OUR LOAN VOLUME, made possible by a continuing deposit growth, points up the fact that the state and the nation are moving toward new peaks of business and industrial growth," Bank of America President S. Clark Beise said.

"During the past year our branches have made an average of approximately 10,000 loans every business day to industry, merchants, consumers, home builders and home purchasers.

This is evidence of a tremendous economic activity," the banker said.

TOTAL DEPOSITS were reported at $10,173,030,839. "Domestic deposits, continuing to show an upward trend, increased $473,335,189 over a year ago," President Beise said. "Overseas deposits on the other hand declined in response to interest rate patterns. During the year the net gain in domestic and overseas deposits was $360,619,104."

Total resources of the bank were reported at $11,159,413,266, an increase of $379,566,458 since the same date a year ago. Investments in securities amounted to $3,030,690,667, as compared with $3,328,230,717 in mid-1958.

12 The Desert Sun Friday, July 3, 1959

Following a confusing discussion this week over the request by a group of department heads that the board revoke its recent action which changed the procedure for effecting step-plan salary increases for employees, action was delayed for another week when a full board is expected to be in attendance. Supervisor Paul Anderson has been absent for the past two weeks on vacation. A statement by Supervisor George Berkey, "I can't go for any change on this," was apparently misunderstood to mean that he couldn't go for a change in the old system. This interpretation brought smiles of satisfaction to the faces of Supervisor Fred McCall and Supervisor William Jones. However, as the conversation progressed, it became apparent that Berkey meant he couldn't go for any change in the board's change of procedure.

"I DON'T AGREE with the request that we revert back to the old order whereby the step increases are automatic," explained Berkey. "We can get so dog-gone automatic that we'll be operated by IBM machinery instead of by department heads. As to time and paper work about which some of the department heads are complaining, I believe it's the duty of department heads to exercise responsibility."

Opponents to the new requirement that each department head fill out a slip for each employee due for a step raise indicating whether or not he will approve it, charge usurpation of the administrative functions of department heads as well as too much paper work and time.

"I THOUGHT THAT the step increases were mandatory and not dependent on approval of a department head," said McCall. "I thought that if a man was good enough to hold a job he should automatically get his step increase."

Fred Holbrook, county hospital administrator, volunteered approval this week of the new system. He said he favored the requirement for an "efficiency report" on each employee. "It is a good thing for employees to merit their increases in pay," he declared. "I believe this change should be retained."

THE PRINCIPAL objection submitted by the Riverside County Employees Association appeared to be against the requirement that department heads submit to the personnel officer and administrative officer specific reports on the merit of their employees.

6 Boys Attend Summer Camp in Washington
A half a dozen Village youngsters left last week for a second summer in Camp Ta-Ha-Do-Wa, at Sylvan on Washington's Fox Island.

The boys who are attending include Eric Samson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Samson; Gary Nix, son of Mrs. Florence Nix; Michael Ellis, son of Mrs. R. C. Ellis; Alan Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Porter Clark, and Steve and Larry Nichols, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Culver Nichols.

The youths will remain at the camp for periods ranging from five to eight weeks.

The camp, owned and operated by Tacoma physician Dr. A. L. Schultz, is located on the Puget Sound. Facilities in the camp include water sports, canoeing, sailing, rowing and other outdoor and water activities.

Abandonment Of Road Okehed
Acting on recommendation by the planning commission, the Board of Supervisors approved abandonment this week of unopened roads in the Flowing Wells Ranch Subdivision which was never developed and is now used for farming southeast of Mecca, subject to filing by owners of the properties involved, of reversion to acreage proceedings.

Owners of the property are D. B. W. Alexander, Pridham Davis, and Warren T. Dickenson.

Irrelevant
Superior Judge Natt Divoll ruled that the attitude of a bull whose owners were being sued for $100,000 because he gored a doctor was irrelevant to the case.
